

Fair Processing / Privacy Notice – Le Murier

About this notice

This Fair Processing Notice explains how Le Murier uses the personal data of parents and pupils. Please read it carefully and if you have any questions regarding your personal data, or its use, please contact the school directly or speak to our Data Protection Officer (contact details below).

What do we mean by personal data?

‘Personal data’ has a very broad legal definition, it is: ‘any information relating to an identified or identifiable [living] individual’.

The scope of what is considered ‘personal data’ expands even further when you consider that it includes both factual information about people as well as opinions expressed about people. It also includes anonymised data that could identify people if it was combined with other information.

What is processing?

Throughout this notice, we refer to the term ‘processing’. In terms of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017, ‘processing’ means any action that is performed on the data; examples of processing include:

- Collection
- Recording
- Organisation
- Structuring
- Storage
- Alteration
- Retrieval
- Consultation
- Use
- Disclosure
- Dissemination
- Restriction
- Erasure
- Destruction

The Data Protection Law

Le Murier processes your personal data in line with its core mandate and is registered as the data controller for all activities summarised within this notice. The school acknowledges its obligations as per the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017 (‘the Law’), which provides a number of requirements in terms of processing activities involving personal data.

Le Murier further acknowledge the general principles of processing as well as the rights of a data subject and more information in relation to these can be found by visiting www.gov.gg/DP

Le Murier acknowledges that all processing of personal data must be lawful, fair and undertaken with transparency and will comply with the Data Protection Principles set out in the Law to ensure that all data processed is:

1. Processed fairly, lawfully and transparently
2. Processed for a specified and lawful purpose(s) and will not be further processed in any incompatible manner (Purpose Limitation)
3. Adequate, relevant and not excessive for those purposes (Minimisation).
4. Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date (Accurate)
5. Not be retained for longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it is processed (Storage Limitation)
6. Processed in a manner that ensures its security appropriately, including protecting against unauthorised or unlawful processing, loss, destruction or damage (Integrity and Confidentiality)

Le Murier is responsible for ensuring that data is processed in accordance with the rights of individuals and must be able to demonstrate compliance with the data protection principles (Accountability).

The types of personal data we collect and use

Le Murier collects and processes personal data about prospective, current and past pupils and their parents and siblings; staff, suppliers and contractors, volunteers and other individuals connected to or visiting the school.

The personal data we collect takes different forms; it may be factual information, expressions of opinion, images or other recorded information which relates to a living individual.

Le Murier collects the following personal data:

- Basic personal data relating to parents, appointed guardians, pupils and their families, staff, contractors and volunteers such as full name, address, date of birth, email address and contact information;
- Language and nationality of pupils;
- Safeguarding information (such as court orders and professional involvement);
- Special Educational Needs (including the needs and ranking);
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended);
- Academic assessment and attainment data (including examination results);
- Behavioural information (such as exclusions and any relevant alternative provision put in place);
- DBS information for staff, contractors and volunteers;
- Images including photos and CCTV;
- General information regarding pupils' educational activities such as behavioural records, test and examination results and academic reports; and
- Qualifications of staff, contractors and volunteers.

In terms of Special Category Data (the most sensitive type of personal data), Le Murier School may collect information revealing:

- Health and medical information of pupils and staff (such as doctors' information, dental health, allergies, medication, dietary requirements and any special educational needs information);
- Racial or ethnic origin;
- Religious or philosophical belief; and
- Genetic data.

These lists are not exhaustive.

Why we collect use personal data

Le Murier uses the information that it collects for multiple purposes which are linked to its core mandated responsibilities in administering education to its pupils as per the Education (Guernsey) Law, 1970 and in line with the Bailiwick of Guernsey Curriculum.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this and we will tell you what you need to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Personal data is processed for the following purposes:

- For the provision of education to pupils including the administration of the school curriculum and timetable, monitoring of pupil progress and educational needs, reporting on these needs to parents, administration of pupils' entries to public examinations, providing references for children who are applying for further study;
- For the safeguarding of pupils' welfare and the provision of pastoral care, welfare and health care services by the school;
- For the provision of educational support and related services to pupils (and parents) including the maintenance of discipline,, provision of careers and library services, administration of sports fixtures and teams, school trips, provision of the school's IT and communications systems and virtual learning environment (in accordance with out IT policies);
- To assess the quality of our services;
- To keep children safe;
- For compliance with legislation and regulation conferred on us by the following laws:
  - The Education (Guernsey) Law, 1970
  - The Children (Guernsey and Alderney) Law, 2008
  - The Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017
- For the operational management of the school, including the administration of invoices, the management of school property, the management of security and safety arrangements (including the use of CCTV and the monitoring of the school's IT and communications systems in accordance with our Acceptable Use Policy), management planning and forecasting, research and statistical analysis, the implementation of the school's rules and policies for pupils, staff and volunteers;
- For the promotion of the school through its website and social media communications.

Our Lawful Basis for Processing

The lawful basis for collecting and processing each category of personal data and special category data is dependent upon the specific processing activity in question.

However, under the Law, the lawful bases we rely on for the majority of processing (including pupil learning and pastoral care) are:

- The processing is necessary for the exercise of a right, power or duty imposed by law;

- The processing is necessary for the exercise or performance of a public function or task carried out in the public interest by a public authority;
- The processing is necessary for a health or social care purpose ;
- The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or other individual;
- Consent (e.g. use of images on social media, use of specific applications); and
- The processing is necessary for the purposes of equal opportunity.

For a full list of the school's data processing activities, please contact the school office, who will be happy to provide you with a list of all data processing undertaken by the school and the lawful basis used for each specific processing activity.

How we collect pupil and parent data

We collect most of the personal data we process directly from the parents of pupils and the pupils themselves.

In some cases, we collect data from third parties, such as;

- Health professionals;
- Previous schools;
- Other areas of the States of Guernsey who may be working with the pupil or family.

No personal data is collected from any publicly available source.

Sharing of personal data

In some circumstances, personal data held by the school may be transferred to another controller within the States of Guernsey or another associated third party.

Le Murier will only share data when there is a lawful basis to do so. We do not transfer data outside of the European Economic Area unless we are satisfied that personal data will be afforded an equivalent level of protection.

Examples of regular data sharing activities are detailed below:
